Why I’d be a good secretary

Presented By: Andrea Cleofe
Things a normal secretary can do that I can too!

- I can type fast
  - “An average person types approximately 40 WPM”
- I’ve got phone etiquette
  - Worked as a hostess at Jose Tejas, had to take calls (sometimes angry, always hungry)
- I’m organized
  - Color coded binders galore
  - Google Calendar (SAC)
  - Organized itineraries for my own parties
A frivolous example of how I write itineraries:

Plans for the party:

- The lot of you find a way to NJIT
- We meet up in front of my apartment and drop off whatever sleepover stuff/party stuff you guys decided to bring
- We can buy liquor nearby
- We take the light rail to NYC
- Fill up our MetroCards and take the PATH to NYC
- If PATH is out, we’ll take the train
- Stroll into Lips for the 9:15 show (show ends at 11:15)
- My parents are paying for your admission and for ONE drink
- Go bar hopping afterwards (optional)
  - Take an Uber back to my apartment (it’ll be $10 a person)
  - Rati and I have space for all of you
Things that make me different

- I have experience being on an e-board
  - Handling emails
  - Talking to higher-ups
  - Organizing events
- A regular attendee
  - Here since ‘16
- A volunteer
  - HackNJIT 2018
  - Open houses
